

The FCC should NOT make a law that would lessen Indiana's no call list. I enjoy so much more time doing things around the yard and with my family now. I never get interrupted by people I don't want to talk to. It is very important to me that a federal law should not be implemented to undermine what we have working for us in our great state of Indiana.